

Journal of Pyrotechnics

Thank you for purchasing access to the JPyro archive.

Your purchase will be enabled manually once your PayPal payment has cleared – please allow up to 48 hours for this to be completed.

Access to the archive depends on what type of subscription you purchased:-

If you have purchased:

- Unlimited access to the Journal for one or two years then the expiry date will be calculated from the date we enable access.
- Prepayment single issue electronic access only, this options enable access to articles as they become available during the year.
- Prepayment single issue hard copy only, this option will dispatch to you the hard copy when it has been published. Please note that the hard copy is usually published early in the year following the publication of the articles – for instance:

Issue 28 (2009) contains all articles published electronically during 2009 and will itself be published early in 2010

- Prepayment single issue hard copy + electronic Prepayment see above.
- Single issue hard copy only issue 27 onwards and issue 1-26, your order will be processed within 48 hours and dispatched to the address provided on the PayPal invoice unless you specify otherwise.
- Sponsorship one or two years, we will use your address details provided on the PayPal invoice unless you specify otherwise.
